

Chance - Steven M Bryant, Kara E. Sherman

I took a chance on you
Look what you put me through
You tore my heart in two
I took a chance on you

I took a chance on you
Look what this turned into
Two different points of view
I took a chance

I knew there was something wrong
I could see it in your eyes
It's just this look you get
One I will soon regret

I knew there was something wrong
I could feel it in the silence
The way you looked past me
Your eyes completely empty

I took a chance on you
Look what you put me through
(I took a chance)
You tore my heart in two
I took a chance on you
(I took a chance)

You left me hanging in the cold
And you never looked back
It was getting old
I was under attack
You and him together living happily forever
Leaving me for dead and you never looked back

You never looked back

And you never looked back
It was getting old
I was under attack
You and him together living happily forever
Leaving me for dead and you never looked back

I knew there was something wrong
I could hear it in your lies
(You never looked back)
You found someone new
Something you can't undo

I knew there was something wrong
I could feel it when you sighed
(You never looked back)
Your thoughts on someone new
I took a chance on you

You never looked back
You never looked back.
